Tootsie Roll

Tootsie Roll is a chocolate candy product wrapped in a nostalgic package that has become part of America for over 100 years.

In 1896, Leo Hirshfield, an Austrian immigrant, came to the United States to set up a small store in New York City, where he hand-rolled and wrapped a candy creation that he had brought from the old country. Leo Hirshfield decided that this product should be named after his daughter Clara, whose nickname was Tootsie.

Tootsie Roll became the first wrapped penny candy in America.

Today, Tootsie Roll continues to produce the same recipe that Leo Hirshfield first developed. Although Tootsie Roll continues to sell the famous penny piece, It is now offered in a variety of shapes to meet every consumer's need.
